

Day 12, Sawmans has come and today we have a special headpiece for my ex-collegue Simona and some Outdoorlanders who follow me..

Under the number "Make that the cat wise " an edition in English..

I learned to translate to English from Louis van Geal and from "Comes a man by the doctor" where they say when keuken is kitchen then neuken is nitchen... Today I walked from Ammersford to Youstraight or as the locals say from Brickvillage to the Stupidtown. The again was ok, no rain, until the last 500m, when it began raining blowjobsteals and even heagelstones came down on me. Tomorrow I will walk to Morechurch.
